

K-LOVE is one of my families favorite stations. They broadcast what is going on in my community and around the southwest. I do not know where else we could receive the music and public services provided by KLOVE. It is in the public's best interest to continue to operate as they are currently. Thank you for your consideration.